Little Hale Parish Council Newsletter

I am pleased to present to you the latest Parish Newsletter. There are several important issues for your information.

FIRST AID COURSE

We have arranged to hold a first aid course as promised at the Defib meeting earlier this year. It will be held in the newly extended Chapel in Little Hale on Saturday 21st November from 2-5pm by kind permission of Rev Amery. Tea and cake will be served during the afternoon to keep all first aiders nourished! It is open to everyone in the village. More information will be circulated nearer the date.

Speed Indication Device

The SID will be coming back to the village to help try to slow some of the speeding motorists passing through the village. It won't solve the problem but hopefully it may help.

Local Plan

As you read this North Kesteven District Council are still running briefings and public engagements in connection with the Local Plan. Please go to their website for more information www.n-kesteven.gov.uk. It is important to keep in touch with the changes in this area as it will affect all of us.

Dog Fouling

We as a village are not suffering too much with dog fouling. Most people are most considerate and dispose of their dog droppings properly. However, we still have one or two offenders who don't. If you spot anyone not picking up, you can report them directly to NKDC by calling 01529 414155, with as much information as possible.

The Royal British Legion

The Heckington and district branch of The Royal British Legion are asking if anyone would like to volunteer or become a member. The branch chairman is Mike Warrington on 01529 460607. You don't have to have served in the Armed Forces to become a member it is open to everyone.
