

HALE MAGNA AND HALE PARVA CEMETERY

Additional rules governing Christmas seasonal decorations for children's plots

- This addendum supplements the main rules and regulations which apply to all plots/ grave spaces
- It applies to any and all ornaments, floral tributes or other form of seasonal decoration or memorial placed on plots of children who were below the age of 18 at the time of their death
- The additional flexibility granted applies from 1st December each year to the 10th January of the following year (the Christmas & New Year period)
- For the specific period mentioned above, the Trustees of the Cemetery permit the use of season decorations, over and above the use of seasonal wreaths, which meet the following requirements
- Christmas trees (without lights), seasonal figures and/or other items where they have a particular connection with the child concerned are permitted, providing they do not exceed 60cm in height or length.
- No decorations, figures or ornaments are permitted where they have lights or any other static or flashing components
- All seasonal decorations shall be removed by 10th January each year. Any items remaining after that date may be removed and disposed of by the Trustees, acting in accordance with the Cemetery rules.
- All parties placing seasonal decorations on plots or grave spaces are deemed to have knowledge of these additional rules and thereby undertake to comply with them

As agreed by the Burial Board at its meeting on 15th November 2021
